GOVERNMENT CONTRIBUTION FOR CONSTRUCTION OF BUILDINGS FOR THE MUNICIPAL AND DISTRICT BOARD HIGH SCHOOLS.

*Q.—138. Sri KUNDUR RUDRAPPA (Channagiri).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) the number of Municipal High Schools and District Board High Schools in Shimoga District (Taluk-wise figures with the places of their location may be furnished);

(b) whether the Government has contributed towards buildings its quota of Rs. 30,000 per building wherein the local quota has been credited by them;

(c) if not yet contributed, the reasons therefor?

A.—Sri ANNARAO GANAMUKHI (Minister for Education).—

(a) The number of Municipal and District Board High Schools in the Shimoga District is 9 and 6 respectively as detailed in statement 'A' below

(b) There is no commitment on the part of the Government to contribute its quota for construction of buildings for the Municipal and District Board High Schools. If and when the Managements of the Municipal and District Board High Schools approach Government for aid for construction of their School buildings, such proposals are being considered by Government on their merits and suitable aid given as per the Grant-in-aid Rules of the Department subject to the availability of funds, etc., during a particular year.

(c) Does not arise—vide reply to question (b) above.
